PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE

MAY 2013

The leadership in organizations such as CCLI need to periodically step back and check to see if the organization is healthy. One of the gauges of an organization's health is membership growth. Another is member participation. Few, if any activities will have 100% membership participation, but the goal is to get nearly 100% of the members to be involved to some degree & participate in some of the organization's activities.

By this gauge, Stephanie Bartoldus has been a smashing success for membership year 2012-2013. She is a leader who rolls up her sleeves & works shoulder to shoulder with the membership. She organizes & pitches in on everything from the Lion Troupe to the Tag Sale. We would like to say thank you to Stephanie not just for her service to CCLI as Co-President, but also for agreeing to continue as Vice President until 2014.

Reflecting on the achievements of the past are important because it provides an opportunity to look at what efforts have been successful so that they can be continued & nurtured but also where things have not been as successful as we might like and make the necessary changes to be more successful.

The two areas of focus for 2013-2014 are to work to increase Grant Money to the Center & to increase CCLI membership. Increasing Membership is everyone's responsibility. Be a CCLI Ambassador! Invite your friends, family to come down to see what we're about. We'll be having an open house later in the year, but there's no need to wait for that. Have them come to a Monthly Meeting or if they have kids & are interested in language or dance, have them come check things out on a Sunday morning. The Board is forming a committee to undertake the grant writing in the coming days. If you have expertise in this area or are interested in learning about it, please contact one of us.

I am honored to be elected Co-President and to be serving with Mona this year. We're both excited and looking forward to a fun and productive year. Thank you for your support.

Mona Ng & Jim Vogel - Co-Presidents

Dinner guests shaking things up on the dance floor

The Center held a wonderful event for Board members serving another three year term and a new Co-President and Vice-President. This evening was filled with heartwarming words from the Co-Chairperson, Co-Vice Chairperson, the Co-President Elect and current Co-President. This was followed by a dinner with entertainment consisting of music, ballroom dancing and our young girls from the Traditional Dance Company.

Anthony D'Urso, long time Center member, and former Councilman from the Town of North Hempstead did the honors of installing James Vogel, Co-President and Stephanie Tang-Bartoldus, VP of Grants, a new position. He subsequently installed Stephanie Tang-Bartoldus, Donna Chan, Patty Chow, Alex Fong, George L. Wing, Albert Yim, and Randy K. Yung as Board Members. James Vogel addressed the audience with a heartwarming speech of deep affection for the members and their entire spectrum of programs and activities. His family, Eileen his wife, and his two daughters, Annie and Theresa looked on in support of his new position with our organization.

Edward Chung, Helen Chin, and Mona Ng came out with praises for Stephanie Tang-Bartoldus for her three years of service as Co-President. She grew into the job and made contributions in fundraising and promoting the Center. Although Stephanie is stepping down as Co-President, she was elected into a newly created position of Vice-President of Projects and Grants. For her service she was presented with a plaque inscribed with deepest appreciation and service to the Center and a small gift by Edward Chung and Mona Ng.

Our five Board members who were elected for another three year term were given Certificates of Appreciation for the past three years of service to the Center. Afterwards, Edward Chung, Co-Chairperson, gave a short spirited message to the members to get behind our Board Members and Officers. When they call on you to serve, do not hesitate and just say "yes". When the job is well done, satisfaction will be your reward, and time well spent.

Afterwards, the festivities began with music for dining and for the attendees, dancing pleasure. Theresa Wing as always did a wonderful job of providing a variety of music. The Ballroom Dance Club as usual was well represented that evening, and the dancers showed their varied skills and mastery of ballroom dancing. We encourage all those who were there, as well as those unable to attend, to join the Saturday evening dance classes for beginners and intermediate level. The dance classes help polish your skills and provides a place to enjoy each other's company.

We want to thank Linda Sau for taking on and skillfully managing the reservations for the Installation Dinner. With the help of other members, she was able to provide us all with wine for our dining pleasure.

We want to thank Lydia Wong, Donna Chan, Lotus Wu, Alanna Chan, and Kelly Ng for preparing the girls to entertain us with traditional dancing.

The girls from our Traditional Dance Company showed their appreciation to the Board Members, Officers and adult members for their continuous support of the children's programs. They opened the first act with the Mongolian Dance performed by our Teen group. The girls did a wonderful interpretation of the strength of the Mongolians through strong body movements and their love of horseback riding. The second act was a performance of XinJiang dancing popular with ethnic minorities in Northwest China. The girls delighted the audience with their skills exhibiting energy and elegance.

We thank the teen performers: Cailin Chan, Amber Chu, Catherine Dart, Liana and Savannah Lo. Our seniors were Lieren Dart, Annie and Theresa Vogel.

"Our Installation Dinner was a true celebration and truly good time was had by all."

Edward Chung

TOWN of NORTH HEMPSTEAD'S ASIAN AMERICAN FESTIVAL-MARK YOUR CALENDAR!

TAG SALE ON APRIL 27, 2013

At what is now becoming a tradition, the CCLI semi-annual tag sale was held on Saturday April 27th. The West Hempstead community was treated to 'gigantic' tag sale event on a beautiful sunny day. A special thank you to everyone who donated their gently used items for sale. Without the donations, we could not be as successful as we were! Many thanks also to all of the volunteers who helped that day. Many hands made light work and we even had some fun. We had member/volunteers from all ages sign up to help, truly bringing our CCLI community together. If you've never participated, our next sale will be in the fall. Donate or volunteer! We sold everything from bikes to balloons. It was a great day.

THE ARTHUR LEM STORY

Arthur Lem came to the U.S. in 1926 when he was 12 years old using a paper slot from a Mr. Lem who had a child of Arthur's age. Arthur's real name was Chin Doong Ott. His assumed name was Lem Bow Quon. This required him to memorize his assumed family history to answer the INS officer's interrogation. He passed with flying colors and was admitted into San Francisco after several weeks of detention.

Like most first generation Chinese immigrants who either worked in a Chinese laundry, grocery store or restaurant, Arthur worked in a Chinese hand laundry owned by his father and uncle located in Floral Park. At the same time, he enrolled in 1st grade in Floral Park public school to learn English. It wasn't long before his father became sick and returned to China leaving Arthur under the care of his Chin cousins and uncles who had a laundry in Hempstead. Arthur helped with the housework and business by ironing and delivering clean laundry to nearby customers. One of the customers was Captain Morse of Nassau County Police Dept. Captain Morse took a liking of Arthur and gave him a job as an interpreter on a "call as needed" basis. He was also given an "Official Interpreter" badge.

During the depressions in the 30's, Arthur quit school after finishing 7th grade and went to work in a Chinese restaurant on Fulton Avenue in Hempstead. He washed dishes, prepared vegetables, cleaned and washed floors. His salary was $3.00 per week plus meals and a place to stay. Arthur worked very hard, helped his brother Harry and his cousin Norman Chin come to America. Unlike Arthur, they were both able to finish High School in Hempstead while working part time in the restaurant.

Arthur married Rose in 1940 and eventually owned his own restaurant to raise his family. They realized that their sons needed to learn the Chinese language and heritage, and so they joined the newly founded CCLI by John Hwang, Dun Li, George Lee and Peter Louie. At that time, each founder took turns to host meetings in their homes. By 1960, CCLI had outgrown their meeting venues. They needed a school for their children to learn Chinese, their heritage and a central meeting place for Chinese Americans. Arthur Lem, Dun Li, John Huang, Arthur Jong, Lucy Lee and Li Louie were searching a home when a generous Mr. Callen donated a mansion in Old Westbury to CCLI. Almost immediately CCLI's membership jumped 100 percent. Arthur obtained a charter and a tax-exempt status for CCLI through his friend Judge Frank Gulotta. However, the mansion was too expensive to operate and CCLI could not get zoning variance. Later, John Hwang found the present location in West Hempstead. Arthur was instrumental in buying this property and getting a mortgage using proceeds from selling the Old Westbury mansion.

As a businessman, Arthur belonged to many organizations such as the Rotary Club, Business Men's Club and YMCA. The involvement in these organizations helped Arthur apply the knowledge he learned to raise money for CCLI. Arthur served in many capacities in CCLI, organized many fund-raisers including the Chinese New Year banquets. He was the first to recommend printing the journal as a means of fund-raising. As a result of the hard work from many early members of CCLI, the funds raised from these activities enabled them to pay off the mortgage.

Over the years, Arthur and Rose donated stocks and savings to help CCLI. When Arthur passed away in 1997, his wish was to have donations made to CCLI in his name. Arthur realized the importance of education and did not want others to endure his hardship. The Arthur Lem Memorial Scholarship was established since 1998 to fulfill his dream. Because of Rose, her families and friends, the money is still coming in today in his memory.

Again this year, CCLI is accepting applications for the Arthur Lem Memorial Scholarship, which was created to honor his legacy. This scholarship is available to children of CCLI members. The goal is to encourage young people to pursue higher education, promote Chinese heritage, humanitarianism and community services, and pursue their dreams. It is CCLI's hope that one day they will return to help pass on their knowledge to the many generations to come.

SEOW DUN & ALICE LI SCHOLARSHIP

Applications are now being accepted for the Seow Dun & Alice Li Scholarship sponsored by the Chinese Center on Long Island. The annual $500 scholarship is to honor the late friends and contributors to the Center for whom it was named.

In loving memory of Dun and Alice, and as expressed by the Li family, the scholarship is awarded each year “ to a Chinese American high school senior who exhibits a deep interest in the future success of CCLI, shares Dun’s original vision, and has an exemplary academic record.”

The Chinese Center scholarship committee will choose the winner. The selection criteria include academic records, references, career goals, an autobiographic essay, and other factors deemed appropriate by the scholarship committee. The scholarship is granted independent of financial need.

Seow Dun Li was one of the four founders of the Chinese Center on Long Island in 1960. He served as President (1986-1987) and member of the Board of Directors for several continuous terms. Dun graduated from the Academy of Aeronautics in Long Island. He loved flying so much he received his pilot license before he knew how to drive an automobile. During WW II he was stationed in North Africa and Southeast Asia with the U.S. Air Transport Division. After the war, he worked for Pan American Airlines where he became head of the technical division. He was a consultant with Grumman for many years until his retirement. In spite of his demanding work schedule Dun and his wife Alice contributed their time to the Center’s activities during its earliest stages. Dun and Alice promoted the Center’s “Dine Around Series” which entailed having members get together for dinner at various Chinese restaurants. That experience cemented a strong friendship among many members. In addition he promoted and participated in the Chinese Musical Instrument classes, which performed at the Center as well as at outreach programs. The instruments played were ‘erhus’ and ‘yang qins.’ Dun and Alice will always be remembered for their dedication and devotion to the mission of our organization, and their lasting friendship to many of the members. Dun and Alice are survived by their daughter Terry, four grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

DAVID WONG SCHOLARSHIP

At our Installation Dinner in the spring of 2007, David Wong, a long time member and supporter of 30 years, presented the Center with a check of $10,000 for a scholarship for the children of the Center.

This donation is a reflection of the kind of person David is. He worked for years for Nassau County in the office of Equal Employment Opportunities, always passing along information about the different opportunities that were available to us, not only verbally but in the newsletter. Many of our members benefited.

David Wong now joins the families of Arthur Lem and Dun & Alice Li in helping the deserving youngsters of the Center to become outstanding citizens through scholarship and personal achievement. We acknowledge again the outstanding efforts of the above in creating and funding these scholarships.

The seed money for these scholarships has been replenished every year by not only the above but by our individual members and friends. If anyone would like to establish a scholarship fund or make a donation to the Center, please contact any of our officers. Our children thank you.
