PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE

MAY 2014

Time flies by so quickly. In a blink of an eye, I've already served 2 years of my presidency. It is a privilege for me to accept a third year as Co-President to serve with Jim. One of my goals this year is to see the last stage of bringing the Center up to code with the Town of Hempstead Buildings Department be completed. With the Parking variance approved, we now begin the work to convert the Center to a handicap accessible facility, mainly the bathrooms, doorways and ramp. Contractors have come in and reviewed the architect's plans and we are awaiting the bids to come in. Work should begin over the summer to be completed by September if all goes according to plan. Center activity programs will be stopped during the construction period and reopen once the work is completed.

Our Board has been working very hard to bring in much needed funds for this construction and for our Center's programs. Many of our Board members have been writing grants and conducting fundraisers with the hopes that this can alleviate some of our budget concerns. We would gratefully accept any donations from our members to help us out with the building construction. Our May tag sale was a success with many of our members cleaning out their house to donate unneeded house items to our sale. Our neighbors in the community look forward to these tag sales and have asked us if we can do it more than just Spring and Fall. We strongly believe these tag sales serve a dual purpose. It gives us an opportunity to meet our neighbors and talk about our Center and it brings in needed funds for our Center. Our school has been fundraising for their programs with our candy sales and our end of the school year Applebees' Breakfast fundraiser. Both are new fundraisers that we are trying out. Thank you to our parents, Board of directors and our Center friends who are helping us so diligently with these fundraisers.

Our Applebees' breakfast fundraiser on June 8th from 8am to 10am is open to everyone. You can drop by anytime between those hours. It is a great way for you, your family, friends and neighbors to get together for a fun morning to start off your Sunday activities. Tickets are $10 and available at the Center and on the day of the event at Applebees in New Hyde Park.

Lastly, our deadline for applying for the Center's scholarship awards ends on June 30th. It is for eligible children of our members from grades 6th to our high school seniors. Do not let this opportunity for your children to obtain a scholarship pass them by. Remind them to fill out the form and send in the requested documentation. Your child just might be the winner of a scholarship to help with their tuition.

Mona Ng and Jim Vogel, Co-Presidents

CCLI INSTALLATION DINNER

On April 13th the Directors, Officers, Members, and friends witnessed the installation of new board members, and those who will serve another three-year term. Mona Ng, our president, who served two years agreed to serve one more year. Anthony D'Urso did the honors of having our members sworn in while presiding over the oath of office.

Congratulations to the following Directors: Judy Chan, Chris Chiu, Janice Chew, Edward Chung, Rita Lee, Betty Leong, Edmund Louie and Linda Sau. Helen Chin and Edward Chung complimented the board members and officers for their time and good work to the Center. Special thanks to Mona Ng for her leadership this past 2 years while serving with James Vogel. Helen and Edward appealed to the membership to work with the leadership as they plan and implement activities in the next 12 months.

It was a beautiful Sunday evening and the event was a celebratory and convivial atmosphere with a delicious dinner, social dancing, and entertainment performed by the young members of the CCLI Traditional and Hip-Hop Dance School.

Many thanks to everyone who made this a festive event in our calendar of activities. Thank you to the following members: Janice Chew and Ellen Gee for taking care of the reservations for our members and friends and making our attendees comfortable in their assigned seats; George and Theresa Wing for reserving the evening at Good Kitchen Restaurant, selection of food, and great music for our dancing pleasure; Alanna Chan for training and choreography; Parents for transportation and logistics; performers Cailin Chan, Catherine Dart, Lieren Dart, Alyssa Fong, Liana Lo, Savannah Lo, and Cloe Southard (Dai Flute Dance), Alanna Chan, Kelly Ng, and Stefanie Ng (Jasmine Flower Dance), Alyssa Fong, Olivia Fong, Nicholas Lo, Chelsea Mok, Justan Mok, and Teddy Polancic (C-Pop Dance ) for the many hours of rehearsal and the final performances for the attendee's enjoyment.

CCLI MEMBERS AT A SEDER SERVICE

On April 15th several of the Center members attended the annual Seder at Temple Emanuel of Great Neck.

The Seder is a ritual performed by a community and or family involving a retelling of the story of the liberation of Israelites from slavery in ancient Egypt. During a Seder, a meal with symbolic foods is served to remind us, generation after generation, to be vigilant that we can lose our liberties in a generation or two. In this case, Rabbi Widom of the Temple had many attendees read passages from the book of Exodus. Among the attendees were members of the Center, Cellini Lodge(Sons of Italy) and Zion Church of Great Neck.

Rabbi Widom explained the bigger picture. For thousands of years, conquered people become, in one form or another, subservient, and in the most extreme cases, slaves to their masters. We believe all humans have a natural desire to live out their life in freedom, to observe the rule of law, and to respect property rights. It was a wonderful evening of service and dinner. Our members as ambassadors of the Center came together with other groups in fellowship in the hope of understanding and respect for each other.

Our members in attendance:

James, Annie, and Theresa Vogel, Jimmy and Helen Chin, Patricia Leung, Gerald and Susan Sullivan, Michael and Rita Lee, Anthony and Marie D'Urso, Edward Chung.

TAG SALE ON MAY 3rd

Sham Gee assists another satisfied customer

The nice weather was upon us on Saturday May 3rd, for our spring Tag Sale. Many of us were worried after record amounts of rain fell the Wednesday before.

This spring's sale was very successful - we hit our goal, plus a little extra. At times, there were 20 people shopping at once! We had many volunteers arrive at 8am to help set up, others who arrived at the end to help us break down our huge operation and deliver to the donation center. Plus others that stayed 9 hours all day. Thanks to everyone for their generous donations to help CCLI on the road to building renovations and new bathrooms!

Chinese Nine Layer Tapioca Cake     by Rose Lem

(Please read all directions carefully before making the recipe!)

Ingredients:

4 cups water
2 cups of brown sugar (light or dark)
2 cups of tapioca flour
1/8 cup of rice flour
2 tablespoons cooking oil

Equipment: 9-inch round or square cake pan, greased, Steamer

1. Heat water, add sugar.
2. When sugar is dissolved, let the mixture cool down.
3. Add flours slowly into sugared water until thoroughly mixed. If there are lumps, put the mixture through a sieve.
4. Stir oil into batter.
5. Prepare steamer
6. Pour 2/3 cup of batter into greased cake pan. Steam for 5 minutes.
7. Add another 2/3 cup of batter and steam for another 5 minutes.
8. Repeat with remaining batter, until there are nine layers.
9. Remove pan from steamer and let cool at room temperature.

THE ARTHUR LEM STORY

Arthur Lem came to the U.S. in 1926 when he was 12 years old using a paper slot from a Mr. Lem who had a child of Arthur's age. Arthur's real name was Chin Doong Ott. His assumed name was Lem Bow Quon. This required him to memorize his assumed family history to answer the INS officer's interrogation. He passed with flying colors and was admitted into San Francisco after several weeks of detention.

Like most first generation Chinese immigrants who either worked in a Chinese laundry, grocery store or restaurant, Arthur worked in a Chinese hand laundry owned by his father and uncle located in Floral Park. At the same time, he enrolled in 1st grade in Floral Park public school to learn English. It wasn't long before his father became sick and returned to China leaving Arthur under the care of his Chin cousins and uncles who had a laundry in Hempstead. Arthur helped with the housework and business by ironing and delivering clean laundry to nearby customers. One of the customers was Captain Morse of Nassau County Police Dept. Captain Morse took a liking to Arthur and gave him a job as an interpreter on a "call as needed" basis. He was also given an "Official Interpreter" badge.

During the depressions in the 30's, Arthur quit school after finishing 7th grade and went to work in a Chinese restaurant on Fulton Avenue in Hempstead. He washed dishes, prepared vegetables, cleaned and washed floors. His salary was $3.00 per week plus meals and a place to stay. Arthur worked very hard, helped his brother Harry and his cousin Norman Chin come to America. Unlike Arthur, they were both able to finish high school in Hempstead while working part time in the restaurant.

Arthur married Rose in 1940 and eventually owned his own restaurant to raise his family. They realized that their sons needed to learn the Chinese language and heritage, and so they joined the newly founded CCLI by John Hwang, Dun Li, George Lee and Peter Louie. At that time, each founder took turns to host meetings in their homes. By 1960, CCLI had outgrown their meeting venues. They needed a school for their children to learn Chinese, their heritage and a central meeting place for Chinese Americans. Arthur Lem, Dun Li, John Huang, Arthur Jong, Lucy Lee and Li Louie were searching a home when a generous Mr. Callen donated a mansion in Old Westbury to CCLI. Almost immediately CCLI's membership jumped 100 percent. Arthur obtained a charter and a tax-exempt status for CCLI through his friend Judge Frank Gulotta. However, the mansion was too expensive to operate and CCLI could not get a zoning variance. Later, John Hwang found the present location in West Hempstead. Arthur was instrumental in buying this property and getting a mortgage using proceeds from selling the Old Westbury mansion.

As a businessman, Arthur belonged to many organizations such as the Rotary Club, Business Men's Club and YMCA. The involvement in these organizations helped Arthur apply the knowledge he learned to raise money for CCLI. Arthur served in many capacities in CCLI, organized many fund-raisers including the Chinese New Year banquets. He was the first to recommend printing the journal as a means of fund-raising. As a result of the hard work from many early members of CCLI, the funds raised from these activities enabled them to pay off the mortgage.

Over the years, Arthur and Rose donated stocks and savings to help CCLI. When Arthur passed away in 1997, his wish was to have donations made to CCLI in his name. Arthur realized the importance of education and did not want others to endure his hardship. The Arthur Lem Memorial Scholarship was established since 1998 to fulfill his dream. Because of Rose, her families and friends, the money is still coming in today in his memory.

Again this year, CCLI is accepting applications for the Arthur Lem Memorial Scholarship, which was created to honor his legacy. This scholarship is available to children of CCLI members. The goal is to encourage young people to pursue higher education, promote Chinese heritage, humanitarianism and community services, and pursue their dreams. It is CCLI's hope that one day they will return to help pass on their knowledge to the many generations to come.

SEOW DUN & ALICE LI SCHOLARSHIP

Applications are now being accepted for the Seow Dun & Alice Li Scholarship sponsored by the Chinese Center on Long Island. The annual $500 scholarship is to honor the late friends and contributors to the Center for whom it was named.

In loving memory of Dun and Alice, and as expressed by the Li family, the scholarship is awarded each year “ to a Chinese American high school senior who exhibits a deep interest in the future success of CCLI, shares Dun’s original vision, and has an exemplary academic record.”

The Chinese Center scholarship committee will choose the winner. The selection criteria include academic records, references, career goals, an autobiographic essay, and other factors deemed appropriate by the scholarship committee. The scholarship is granted independent of financial need.

Seow Dun Li was one of the four founders of the Chinese Center on Long Island in 1960. He served as President (1986-1987) and member of the Board of Directors for several continuous terms. Dun graduated from the Academy of Aeronautics in Long Island. He loved flying so much he received his pilot license before he knew how to drive an automobile. During WW II he was stationed in North Africa and Southeast Asia with the U.S. Air Transport Division. After the war, he worked for Pan American Airlines where he became head of the technical division. He was a consultant with Grumman for many years until his retirement. In spite of his demanding work schedule Dun and his wife Alice contributed their time to the Center’s activities during its earliest stages. Dun and Alice promoted the Center’s “Dine Around Series” which entailed having members get together for dinner at various Chinese restaurants. That experience cemented a strong friendship among many members. In addition he promoted and participated in the Chinese Musical Instrument classes, which performed at the Center as well as at outreach programs. The instruments played were ‘erhus’ and ‘yang qins.’ Dun and Alice will always be remembered for their dedication and devotion to the mission of our organization, and their lasting friendship to many of the members. Dun and Alice are survived by their daughter Terry, four grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

DAVID WONG SCHOLARSHIP

At our Installation Dinner in the spring of 2007, David Wong, a long time member and supporter of 30 years, presented the Center with a check of $10,000 for a scholarship for the children of the Center.

This donation is a reflection of the kind of person David is. He worked for years for Nassau County in the office of Equal Employment Opportunities, always passing along information about the different opportunities that were available to us, not only verbally but also in the newsletter. Many of our members benefited.

David Wong now joins the families of Arthur Lem and Dun & Alice Li in helping the deserving youngsters of the Center to become outstanding citizens through scholarship and personal achievement. We acknowledge again the outstanding efforts of the above in creating and funding these scholarships.

The seed money for these scholarships has been replenished every year by not only the above but by our individual members and friends. If anyone would like to establish a scholarship fund or make a donation to the Center, please contact any of our officers. Our children thank you.
