PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE

OCTOBER 2013

The weather is still a little warm during the day but the nights are definitely getting cooler, a clear indicator that Fall has arrived. Summer vacations are behind us and parents and children are settling into their normal routines. For the Center, it has been a busy month for us. We have had a host of new families join the Center. Welcome to all our new members! Please check out our multitude of programs. We have something for everyone in your family! The younger generation will love the language and dance classes. The grandparents would enjoy our Senior Club day with the free food, mahjong and Ping-Pong and excursions. For the parents and older kids we have Toastmasters, Ballroom dancing, language and monthly presentations. If you have any questions about our programs, please email us at ccli1960@gmail.com.

This month we have a Fall fundraiser that has been very popular in the past with the students and parents of the Center. If you are looking for a good quality sweatshirt, pj pants or shorts for you or a family member, check out the Center's clothing sale! It's a great way to show your CCLI pride and support the Center at the same time. The deadline is at the end of this month.

We had our Fall Garage Sale in Sept. Due to uncooperative weather it was held on Sept 7th and 14th. A hearty cheer and thanks to Stephanie Bartoldus for organizing and running this program again. A special Presidential Thank You also for their time and effort to Sham Gee, Helen and Jimmy Chin, Eileen Vogel, Kelly Ng, Shirley Shing, Alex Fong, Edward and Tuey Chung and new member and "Man About Town" Bryant Lew. Bryant joined CCLI in Sept. He is taking Mandarin & has been at every event we had in September! Love to see that kind of involvement! Due to their efforts, we raised over $1000 for the Center. Thank you also to everyone for their donations. This was a CCLI Team effort.

Be sure to bring your whole family and join us on Friday, October 18th. This is a wonderful opportunity to meet Nancy James, a prize-winning, internationally known photographer and videographer. You and your family will be visiting Nepal, Tibet, China and Inner Mongolia through Nancy's beautiful photographs. Afterwards, Nancy James will be taking complimentary family portraits for all attendees. This is a great opportunity for you and your family to get a family picture taken for your holiday cards. It's also a convenient way for you to support the Center by using the family picture for a family ad in the CCLI's annual journal. The journal is an important fundraiser for the Center. If you know of any local merchants in your area that may be interested in taking an ad in our journal please let them know.

ENJOY AN ARMCHAIR VISIT TO NEPAL, TIBET, CHINA AND INNER MONGOLIA WITH NANCY JAMES!

Please join us at our monthly meeting on Friday, October 18, as we visit Nepal, Tibet, China and Inner Mongolia through the stunning, unbelievable and exquisite photography of Nancy James, our prize winning, internationally known, resident professional photographer and videographer. Nancy James has a burning passion for International Studies which has led her to travel extensively throughout the world, taking photographs which bring alive the lives of citizens of remote areas who are not impacted as yet by the 20th century. Nancy's travels with research teams to remote areas of the world has given her the opportunity to photograph fascinating ancient cultures which are still around but not really a part of our world. Nancy's stunning photographs of the inhabitants, their families and their culture will bring new meaning to the word "awesome". Please invite your families and friends to our October meeting which promises to an extraordinary meeting. All children are welcome to attend. A light after-dinner snack of pizza will be served.

“PROTECTING YOURSELF FROM ELDER FINANCIAL ABUSE” BY JOHN ROTONDI SEPT. 20, 2013

It was an amazing presentation at our September monthly Center meeting by one of our own CCLI Toastmasters, John Rotondi, who is a licensed expert in the detection of consumer fraud. If you ever worried about being scammed, this was the perfect opportunity to discover all the varied and possible scams out there perpetrated on the general public. Not only did we learn so much from John's power point presentation, we also received John's complete twenty five page handout of all the fascinating and invaluable information given that evening for us to further digest at our leisure.

Jim Vogel, on right, introducing speaker John Rotondi.

Our audience paid rapt attention to John as he discussed in great detail about how to prevent it from happening to us. Being forewarned is being forearmed! Many questions were asked during the question and answer period. Some of the topics John discussed included what actually is Elder Financial Abuse, the types of methods criminals use to scam seniors and how to protect yourself from thirteen different types of scams. John also spoke about other frauds the elderly are subjected to. His handout gave a detailed description of his presentation and also listed documents and videos which one can view to receive more information about this extremely interesting and valuable topic. All who were present were able to take home some invaluable information which will save them literally hundreds of thousands of dollars. Kudos and many, many thanks to John Rotondi for an excellent and informative presentation which we will be sure to put to great use in preventing us and our loved ones from being scammed!

LION & TRADITIONAL DANCE GROUPS SHOWCASE CCLI AT WEST HEMPSTEAD STREET FAIR ON SEPT. 29TH

On Sunday, September 29th - CCLI's Traditional Dance and Lion Troupes performed at the Annual West Hempstead Street Fair a few blocks away from the Center on Hempstead Avenue. It was a beautiful day and over 20 of our volunteer performers put on a show for the many West Hempstead Fair attendees passing by. First, 16 members of the lion troupe performed the opening routine, then the dancers performed the Hu Bei fan dance plus a Mongolian horse dance. A large crowd gathered to watch the performance and we even attracted a few new members. It was great exposure for the Chinese Center on Long Island, especially right in our own neighborhood!

CENTER TAG SALE, SATURDAY,
SEPTEMBER 28, 2013

It was a gorgeous and perfect day with sunshine and gentle breezes for our annual tag sale. September 28 was part two of our sale. We had been rained out on the weekend before. On this Saturday, hoards of people stopped by to take a look and to buy! The price was always right! Stephanie Bartoldus, Mona Ng, Eileen and Jim Vogel, Ed and Tuey Chung, Sham Gee, Shirley Shing, Kelly Ng, George Wing, Suey Tom, Fern Rashkover, Connie Chen, Bob Wong, Bryant Lew, Aidan Logan and Edmund Louie and family and many other members came by to help sell. The public and members turned out to snag a good deal. Is this what we call a swap meet?

Everyone was happy as you can see by the smiles all around. Not only were the Center volunteers happy selling but it was a great opportunity for all our members to do some cleaning out of basements and garages to donate their “stuff” which helped to bring in some much needed funds to the Center for our ever increasing operating costs!.

In the meantime, if you missed donating to the tag sale and have some nice raffle prizes in your home, please do not hesitate to contact Shirley Shing or Mona Ng to let them know when you want to drop it off to them at the Center. As you know we make up a multitude of extraordinary baskets for Banquet raffle prizes which will bring in needed funding for our programs. Our Center's voicemail is 516 483 7770 where you can leave a message for them. They will call you back. So keep on cleaning out those basements and garages. This will keep your home neat as a pin.

CCLI TOASTMASTERS CONGRATULATES JIM VOGEL, SPEECH CONTESTANT WINNER!

Two years ago, the CCLI Toastmasters Club was chartered and it has been an amazing journey for all who joined. We found our new meeting dates of the second and fourth Saturday mornings of the month to be better for all. Our CCLI Toastmasters have become so proficient that they are now completing their certificates and are also competing in speech contests. Helen Chin is now the Area Governor of Division H, Area 81 which oversees the CCLI Toastmasters and three other clubs.

On Saturday, September 28, the CCLI Toastmasters held their club contest to send contestants to the Humorous and Table Topics contestants to Helen's Area Contest. The winner of the CCLI humorous contest was Tony Mok and the winner of the Table Topics category was Jim Vogel. On October 1, Jim Vogel went on to win second place in the Area Contest. Congratulations, Jim! This is Jim's second win in two years as a speech contestant. We welcome all interested in improving their speaking and leadership skills to visit as our guest to see what we are all about. For information: Helen Chin - 516 883 8798
